Guidance notes for General Practitioners

Ochil Tower School is an independent school for vulnerable children with learning disabilities.

All employees and voluntary workers at Ochil Tower School are required to submit a medical report certifying their health and fitness for the work that will be undertaken in the school. In this instance the applicant has applied for the position of:-

Volunteer Residential Care Worker for Children and Young Adults with Additional Needs

It should be noted that this position will require daily interaction with the children and the applicant will regularly be dealing with physical disability and challenging behaviour.

This environment can be strenuous and the work requires physical and emotional stamina. One-to-one work with children, some physically disabled and others with challenging behaviour, may make demands upon the co-worker. If you have any questions or concerns about the physical or emotional health of the applicant, or if there are any ongoing medical or psychological conditions, please explain below. This should include but are not restricted to:

- History of substance abuse
- Psychological illnesses
- Epilepsy, allergies, back pain, etc.
- Any contagious or blood borne disease considered dangerous to others
- Any condition which may affect the applicant's performance or interfere with the health of the children he/she comes into contact with.
